COMES NOW, Erik Carlson, pretrial services officer, presenting an official report upon the conduct of defendant, Corey Edward Mobley, who was placed under pretrial release supervision by the Honorable Cynthia Imbrogno sitting in the Court at Spokane, WA, on the 1st day of March 2012, under the following conditions:

Condition #9: Defendant shall refrain from the use or unlawful possession of a narcotic drug or other controlled substances, as defined in 21 U.S.C. § 802, unless prescribed by a licensed medical practitioner.

Condition #28: Prohibited Substance Testing: If random urinalysis testing is not done through a treatment program, random urinalysis testing shall be conducted through pretrial services, and shall not exceed six times per month. Such methods may be used with random frequency and include urine testing, the wearing of a sweat patch, a remote alcohol testing system, and/or any form of prohibited substance screening or testing. Defendant shall refrain from obstructing or attempting to obstruct or tamper, in any fashion, with the efficiency and accuracy of prohibited substance testing. Full mutual releases shall be executed to permit communication between the Court, pretrial services, and the treatment vendor. Treatment shall not interfere with defendant's court appearances.

Condition #29: Home detention: Defendant shall be restricted to his residence at all times except for: attorney visits; court appearances; case-related matters; court ordered obligations; or other activities as pre-approved by the U.S. Pretrial Services Office or supervising officer, as well as employment; religious services; and medical, substance abuse or mental health treatment.
